A MESSAGE TO THE MEDIA AND PATRONS

The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation and the management of Thistledown takes great pride in welcoming you to another season of great racing.

This year book, depicting the highlights of the 1985 racing season at Thistledown was compiled by Dorothy M. Welsh, Director of Public Relations/Marketing and The Public Relations Staff, Naomi Horwitz and Greg Davis, to assist the media's reporting on thoroughbred racing and for the benefit of patrons that follow the sport at Thistledown.

We hope you will be with us throughout the 1986 season for the finest in thoroughbred racing.

For any further information please feel free to contact me or any member of the public relations staff.

THISTLEDOWN...A BRIEF HISTORY

HOW IT ALL STARTED . . . Organized racing began in Ohio in 1837 in Cincinnati, with Thoroughbreds being recruited from Kentucky.

Later, horse racing spread to other towns and Cleveland was one of them. Newspaper accounts indicate that the first racing in Cleveland was staged over an unmarked course on Kinsman Road, several miles from Public Square.

Public interest in Thoroughbred racing surged during the 1920s and tracks began to spring up throughout the area.

A race meeting was held in Chagrin Falls in 1920, backed by three French-Canadians.

Thistledown was built by John H. McMillen & Associates in 1925, the track then being known as Thistle Down Park because of the many thistles on the site. The opening program was held on July 20 and 18,000 fans turned out to see what was called by some "The Saratoga of the West."

Racing was conducted at Thistle Down Park, with its wooden grandstand and Colonial-style clubhouse, through the 1944 season.

* * *

In the 1960s the nationally-known developer and builder, Edward J. DeBartolo of Youngstown, Ohio purchased the track and properties.

DeBartolo has built Thistledown's premier attraction, the Ohio Derby, into one of the nation's outstanding races. The 1984 event was escalated from $150,000 to $200,000.

In 1985 the Inaugural Running of the $100,000 Added Rose DeBartolo Memorial Handicap was added to the Ohio Derby Day Card.

THE TRA AND WHAT IT MEANS

In 1942 responsible race track management banded together to organize the Thoroughbred Racing Association, today known as the TRA.

The TRA functions on the lines of a Trade Association and, in effect, is thoroughbred racing's version of the "Better Business Bureau." Membership in the TRA numbers 49 race tracks, including Thistledown's four meetings.

All TRA member tracks operate under a self-imposed Code of Standards, and together they maintain the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau (TRPB), a national investigative organization established in 1945.

THE HBPA

The Ohio Division of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association represents the Thoroughbred owners and trainers racing at the Cleveland tracks. President, Lou Madonna.

EDWARD J. DeBARTOLO
OWNER
A MASTER BUILDER
AND SPORTSMAN

Recognized as the world's largest developer, builder, owner and operator of enclosed shopping malls, Edward J. DeBartolo, President and owner of Thistledown, pursues such diversified fields as Thoroughbred and Harness racing, Hotels, Major Office Buildings, Executive Parks and Mixed-use Mall developments and more.

The DeBartolo family, whose firm is located in Youngstown, Ohio, is also the largest single investor in sports enterprises in North America. DeBartolo owns the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League, The Pittsburgh Spirit of the Major Indoor Soccer League and three Thoroughbred race courses — Balmoral Park, Louisiana Downs and Thistledown.

His son, Edward Jr., who is the President of the DeBartolo Corporation, is the owner of the San Francisco 49ers, the National Football League's 1982 & 1985 Super Bowl Champions.

DeBartolo's pride and joy are his large regional malls, enclosed, climate-controlled modern cities, spread from coast to coast throughout the United States. Among his prizes is the world's largest enclosed mall, the magnificent Randall Park Mall across the street from Thistledown.

Luxurious hotels also have become a part of the DeBartolo operations. The beautiful North Randall Holiday Inn, built on the grounds of the Randall Park Mall, is particularly outstanding as a luxury hotel and convention center.

DeBartolo entered racing in 1960 when he purchased Thistledown and its properties. He set a plan, which included recommendations for improving thoroughbred racing in Cleveland. The goals included five-day-a-week racing, Sunday racing, increases in attendance and handle, increases in purses and revenue to the state and making the Ohio Derby a premier event. He has achieved these goals, and more, and like a Thoroughbred, he hasn't quit.

GEORGE W. JONES
VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Thistledown's Vice President and General Manager, George W. Jones, is the first black to hold a top executive position in the racing industry.

Jones, a Chicagoan who now makes his home here, was appointed General Manager of Thistledown in 1977.

At 42, one of the youngest such executives in the country, Jones has impressed everyone with his organizational ability, his energetic and innovative thinking and his knowledge of racing. Adding to his qualifications as an executive, Jones has a track record of outstanding public speaking appearances, with a superb command of the English language.

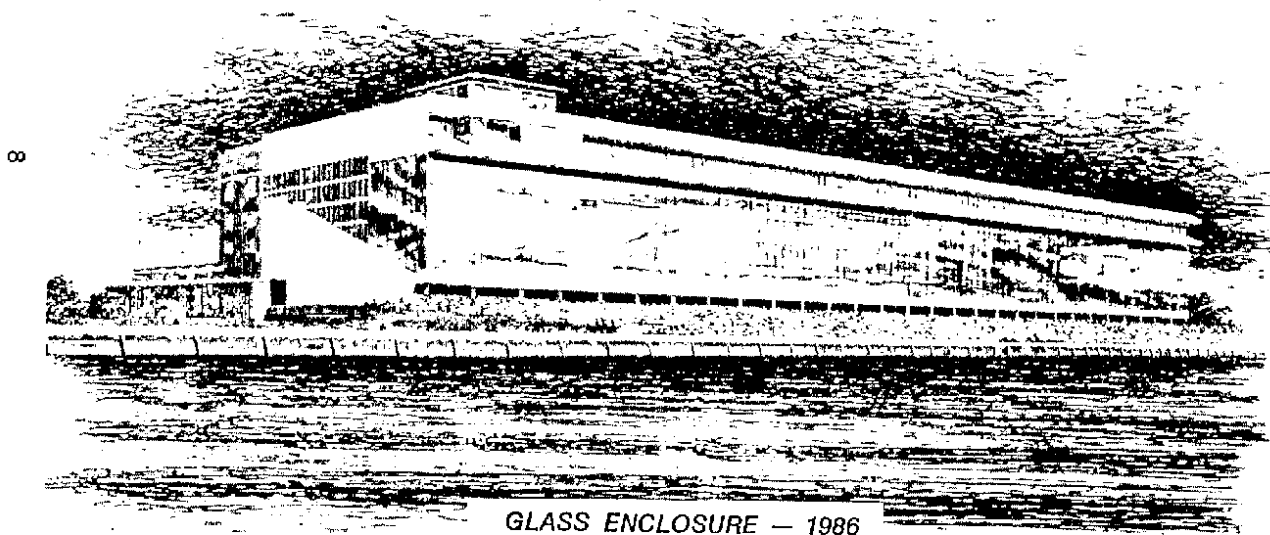

In 1978 Jones was appointed to the post of Executive Vice President of operations for Thistledown and also for Balmoral Park Race Track in Crete, Illinois, owned by Edward J. DeBartolo.

In 1977 & 1983, he was honored by the Black Identity Organization in Lexington, Kentucky, for his achievements and contributions to racing as a black executive. On hand to pay tribute to Jones for the award was Thistledown's President, Edward J. DeBartolo.

Under Jones' administration of the track, numerous innovations and improvements have occurred. The building of new barns, construction of a 1/2-million dollar jockey's facility; purchase of the new sell/cash Autotrak wagering system; construction of a new all-weather racing strip; contribution to several major pieces of legislation, including simulcasting; additional purse money to horsemen. In addition to the completed improvements (the 1985 installation of the 19' x 50' Diamond Vision a full-color video display system), Jones is responsible for a $23 million major improvement project (completed in March of 1986) that includes a glass-enclosed climate controlled grandstand; new horse barns; sleeping accommodations for backstretch personnel; The Ecorche dining terraces, Bistro and Gourmet facility; Homestretch Party Center; Patio; new seating and box section; and tote board.

THE OHIO DERBY

The Ohio Derby is the oldest and most famous horse race staged in the Buckeye State and one of the premier races on the North American racing calendar. The inaugural running was decided in 1876 over the Chester Park course of the Queen City Jockey Club in Cincinnati, where it was renewed annually through 1883. The purse grew from the $1,000 offered in 1876 to $200,000 guaranteed in 1984. Of all the great classics for three-year-olds, only the Travers, Jerome, Withers, Belmont, Preakness, California and Kentucky Derbies can claim more ancient lineage.

The Ohio Derby was revived at Maple Heights, a Cleveland track, in 1924. A famous runner, Black Gold, accounted for a quartet of Derbies that year, including the Kentucky and the local version of the historic English race. The aptly named Black Gold was the property of an oil rich Indian and later became the subject of a motion picture.

During the following decade, The Ohio Derby was contested at Maple Heights, Bainbridge and at Thistledown, where a final running took place in 1935. The depression forced discontinuance until 1952, when the Derby was brought alive again at Cranwood.

THE OHIO DERBY now is run at a mile and one-eighth for three-year-olds. It started as a mile and one-half race in 1876.

Last year's $200,000 race was won by Skip Trial, with Jean-Luc Samyn riding. Encolure, with Ronald Ardoin up, finished second and Jacques L'Heureux with Adam Campola in the saddle finished third. Eight went to the post from 77 nominations.

THE EAST INDIA CUP

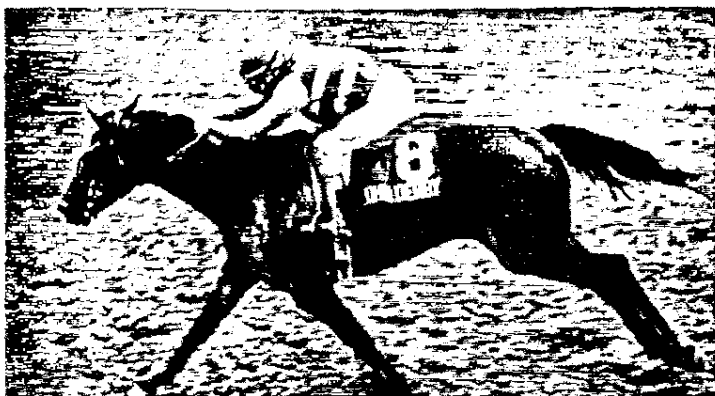

THE EAST INDIA CUP, the trophy which goes to the winner of the Ohio Derby, has a colorful history going all the way back to 1807. But its presentation to the winner of the Ohio Derby was first made in 1953, when Find won the event.

The Cup was made by Benjamin Smith, a famed London silversmith, and it was first awarded for exemplary service—to the captain of the old English merchant vessel which had beaten off an attack by French pirates.

A copy of the Cup was brought to America by an antique dealer and it was from this dealer, in New York, in 1952, that Thistledown purchased the Cup for $400. Names of all the previous winners, going back to the first Ohio Derby winner in 1876, are inscribed on the Cup.

A replica of the Cup is awarded to the owner, trainer and jockey.

1985 OHIO DERBY WINNER

THE WINNER OF THE 1985 OHIO DERBY: SKIP TRIAL with Jean-Luc Samyn in the saddle won by four and one half lengths over Encolure. Skip Trial owned by Mrs. Ben Cohen clocked the one mile and one-eighth event in 1:49 on a fast track, earned $120,000 and paid $8.40 to win. Jacque L'Heureux finished third.

R. L. by Balljumper—Looks Promising by Promised Land. Trainer Hine Hubert. Bred by Morgan Nancy Pross (Ky). SKIP TRIAL, hung wide going into the clubhouse turn, was dropped over on the inside at the point of the turn to be with the pace, assured command in the stretch and drew off under intermittent urging. ENCOLURE, away in good order off the rail set the pace until the top of the stretch and held on gamely once displaced on the lead by the winner, JACQUE L'HEUREUX, taken in hand to trail for six furlongs, rallied on the second turn and finished with good courage. I AM THE GAME, hung wide coming into the first turn, steered going into the far turn, offered a bid into the stretch, then came up empty. VIOLADO went evenly without a rally. NEAR THE STORM disputed the pace for almost a half and weakened. DEVIL'S MILLHOPPER was with the pace while along the rail for five furlongs and faded out. SPOT JET disputed the pace for a half and gave way. Owners—L. Cohen Mrs. B. 2, Porter Manigault, A. Whitlock, A. Leatherbury & Mandarini, S. D. Process. Sire Inc., S. Rose Mill Farm, J. Baldovick H. ARTIC DAWN

THISTLEDOWN'S

WINNINGEST HORSE

THE WINNINGEST THOROUGHBRED (with eight wins) for the 1985 racing season: Artic Dawn, (with Michael Rowland in the saddle) a seven-year-old gelding, owned by Tom Johnson and trained by Alvin Ross.

MORNING GLORY CLUB PROGRAM

The 1985 Morning Glory Club Program consisted of five sessions. Breaking all previous records, the total Morning Glory Club membership was 1,405 with 3,200 fans attending the five sessions. The sessions began trackside on August 3rd. Once again, Alan Drake, the "Voice" of Thistledown, was the emcee for the sessions which featured handicapping, racing officials, jockeys, trainers, a trip to an area farm and a special session on gimmick wagering.

The desire to gain additional knowledge about the "Sport of Kings" was apparent when approximately 950 fans attended the Opening Session.

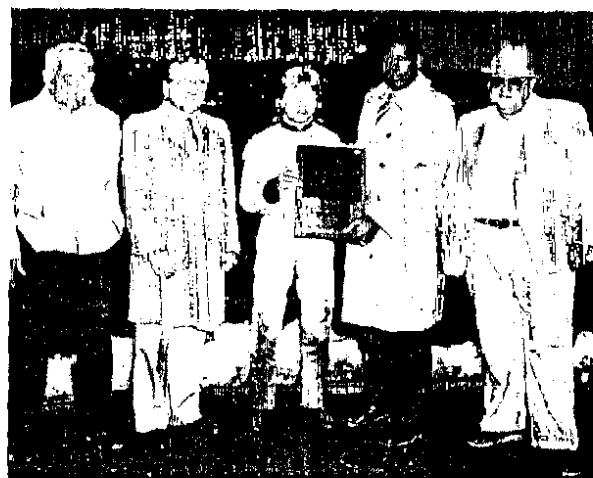

The 9th successful season of the Morning Glory Club was held during the month of August.

"SIX IN ONE DAY"

Six victories in a single day is a feat accomplished nine times by eight different jockeys at Thistledown. One rider accomplished the six-win feat twice. Antonio Graell turned his first six win victory on February 21, 1976. He also rode six winners on November 14, 1980.

Here's the list of jockeys who have won six races in a day at Thistledown and the horses they rode on those historic occasions (figures in parenthesis indicate the race number):

You Can Enjoy a "Day at the Races" with your Special Group

Special Group plans at Thistledown give more people a chance to enjoy racing for less money, while introducing our new fans to thoroughbred racing, the King of Sports. A "Day at the Races" may be just the event you have been looking for to provide publicity, financial and social success for your favorite charity or merely to stage an enjoyable outing for your group.

The Homestretch Party Center group plans for 25 persons or more include admission, luncheon, free programs, a race named in honor of your group and a souvenir photograph of your group's Winners' Circle presentation. Grandstand and Senior Citizen plans also available.

So why not get on the "right track" and make arrangements for your group to enjoy an unforgettable afternoon of exciting thoroughbred racing. For reservations and information, please contact Julie Wentz, Sales Director, Thistledown Race Track (216) 662-8600, Ext. 233, P. O. Box 7050, Cleveland, Ohio 44128.
